

Belen Ruiz-Mezcua holds a PhD in Physics by the ETSI Telecommunications of the Polytechnic University of Madrid. She is currently a professor in the Information Technology Department of the Carlos III University of Madrid and Technical Director of the Spanish Center for Subtitled and Audiodescription (CESYA) under the Royal Patronage on Disability. She is co-author of several papers in lectures and congress. She is Deputy Vice-Chancellor for Scientific Technological Park. She works and manages several International Projects and she is co-author of several publications in international journal and congresses.